“ Reading the obituary in today's Asbury Park Press brought back a lot of great childhood memories -- skipping rope on the sidewalk, playing with dolls, and so on. I believe I lived next door to the Czarncecki family on Norwood Avenue in Irvington, about seventy years ago; until my family moved to Cranford about 1951. I remember playing with Lorraine and Dolores (and later their baby brother) and thinking how lucky Lorraine and Dolores were to be sisters (I am an only child). Dolores' Mom helped take care of me while my Mother was at work, and if I remember correctly, Dolores' family lived on the bottom floor of a triplex with the Grandparents living on the top floor and an Aunt and her family on the second floor. I'm sorry for Dolores' passing, and am sure that she will always be remembered by everyone who knew her.. -- Ellen (Van Hirtum) Kozlowski, Red Bank NJ.
