

Roland Canepa

October 23, 1936 - March 21, 2020

Roland Canepa, 83, passed away peacefully into the loving arms of our Lord on March 21, at Allaire Rehabilitation & Nursing Facility, Freehold, NJ.

He was pre-deceased by his parents, Joseph and Ada Canepa, and his big brother, Manlio "Manny" Canepa.

Roland is survived by his devoted nieces, Lynda Rhiel, her husband Steve and their sons, Connor and Taylor of Virginia Beach, VA; Kim Fry, her husband John and their daughters, Allyson and Emily along with their son, John Ryan, his wife Virginia and their children, Johnny and Charleigh, all of Freehold, NJ; and Susan Bishop, her husband Brian and their children, Grant, Amanda and Tyler of Stanley, NC. He is also survived by his sister-in-law, Barbara McDonald and her husband William, of Newton, NC.

Roland's nieces would like to thank Dr. Philip Dennis, Serenity Hospice and the wonderful caregivers at Allaire. At the request of family, services were private.

Funeral arrangements entrusted to Hoffman Funeral Home, Long Branch, N.J.

“ Just found out Roland passed away. My mom, Iris Forshay, was Roland's cousin and grew up spending many summers down the shore with him and his brother. She often tells us stories of Redbank in the summers. She's living at the Christain Health Center in Wyckoff NJ now, I'll let her know about his passing. God Bless your family! Sincerely, Donna Forshay
